

Do you live in a foster home, group home or secure treatment facility?

Are you currently in a youth justice facility?

Are you receiving services for your mental health, a developmental or physical disability?

You have rights.

Did you know there is a law in Ontario called the Child, Youth and Family Services Act, 2017 (CYFSA)?

This law outlines your rights as a child or young person receiving services related to foster homes, group homes, youth justice, secure treatment facilities, mental health, developmental and/or physical disabilities under the CYFSA. This includes counselling services and many more.
